 Subject: RE: Claim against Jennifer McAdam [CR-PCR1.FID113720]

Dear Irina

Based on this, my view is that we ought only to include OneCoin Ltd as the claimant in both Norwegian and UK proceedings. However, I propose to forward this to Per to confirm he agrees.

However, I don't understand why you wish to keep this information confidential. We have been instructed to issue proceedings relating to the claim that the company is being run by a criminal network. It is true that the burden of proof is on the Defendant, and we do not think they can prove their claim. However, if it is defended we will soon get to a point where secrecy is going to count against us; Per has also raised this in the context of the Norwegian case. To do the best job for the company and to silence the critics (and ultimately the police), we need evidence, including about the corporate set up.

I would like, perhaps when we meet next week, to spend time identifying what information we need to help us pursue the case.

Kind regards

Claire Gill
